On Sunday October 29 2017, at the Palestine Union Baptist Church, The Forest, Exuma, a Church and Awards Service was held. This ceremony was sponsored by the Ministry of Youth Sports and Culture in recognition of National Youth Month. Five students from the St. Andrew's Anglican School received awards for their outstanding performance in the Exuma/ Ragged Island District. Miss. Taleah Martin, Head Girl who recently represented the district at the Youth in Parliament, after winning the district speech competition, received the highest award- The Award of Excellence. K'Nell Smith received the award for Academic Excellence while Shamir Rolle, Head Boy and Dereka Bodie were awarded for Athletics and Performing Arts respectively. Carlton Taylor (Jr.), Deputy Head Boy was awarded for Community Service. We commend our students and wish them continued success.

Master Alden Strachan for omitting your name from the prefect list last month.
